Canadian singer/songwriter Brent Newman has been writing and recording music for nearly 20 years. Born in the Saskatchewan prairies and then moving as a child to Fort Frances he enjoyed a childhood here on Rainy Lake. He has lived in London, England for the last 15 years—having success leading a band (The Koreans) and then later as a solo artist releasing 3 solo albums to date.

Returning to Canada last year, he has been playing and writing his music with Fort Frances roots rock band Rough Cut Pine made up of local musicians Jim Newman, Robroy Donaldson and Bill Shine.

This a fundraiser for Community Chest (provides financial assistance to district residents for medical emergencies) so come early and bring your generosity ($). Lots of fundraising activities — games, auction items, and a great BBQ supper beginning at 6:30 p.m.

(Cornell Farms is located 15 minutes west of Fort Frances on highway 11/71 and 1 mile north on LaVallee Road North)
