JOEY LANDRETH

Tuesday, August 8, 2017
7:30 p.m.

The Toronto Star calls Joey Landreth, "Their New Favourite Thing". Born and raised on the Canadian prairies, Joey has grown up with a guitar in his hands. Working as a side man through his teens and early twenties, Joey and his brother David formed The Bros. Landreth when he was 25. The band was immediately successful, winning a Juno with their first album. The band rose quickly to success turning the heads of musical heavy-weights such as Bonnie Raitt, John Oates and Jimmie Vaughan. They even played at Cornell Farms. Joey is now launching his solo career, blowing audiences away with his musical proficiency,
