

Scenes from the Christmas Melodies Concert, August 19, 2012

Thanks to Lowey's Greenhouse and Market Garden, it really was Christmas at Cornell Farms on August 19th. Local performers gathered for the live taping of familiar Christmas melodies. The combination CD/DVD will be sold as a fundraiser for the Salvation Army Christmas Cheer Fund.

It was fun seeing some of the behind the scenes activities for a concert like this. Here's a few pictures: Cliff the sound guy working with Mike McCaig. As the afternoon progressed, Scott Barker's "band" grew for his version of Justin Bieber's "Mistletoe". Notice the 3 "snappers" on the left – Lauren, Kenneth and Garnet and Shannon on the right with the sleigh bells.

Entirely Mac performed a special version of Silent Night.

Erica Tymkin did a beautiful version of Breathe of Heaven.

Lauren Gurski and Kenneth Kellar also performed some Christmas solos.

Shannon Darby on violin joined Garnet Cornell on piano to perform an instrumental Christmas Medley.

Garnet Cornell and Scott Barker nearly brought down the house with their unique (and comical) version of "White Christmas".

The final number of the night was a group number with all the performers. The CD/DVD combination raised $4000+ for the Christmas Cheer Fund.
