

What's Happening at Cornell Farms

Spring, 2017

We've had a great start to 2017 at Cornell Farms.

Kim and Pat were able to go on a bit of a holiday – visiting friends at Scottsdale, Arizona and then traveling north to Elko Nevada for the National Cowboy Poetry Gathering. They were joined by two of Pat's sisters – Marie and Dianne who also had a great time at the Gathering and at the local museum. Pat and Kim also spent one night in Las Vegas – one of the stops on their honeymoon many years ago.

Kim attended the Annual Meeting of the Ontario Federation of Agriculture in Toronto. He had fun at the Better Farming Magazine promotional booth.

Calving started the first of March and we are just over 110 calves with about 70 more to go. It's always fun to see all the new calves.

We had lots of help getting the calves tattooed with our herd letters, and calf number and year letter.

We also had a great day getting the yearling bulls ready for their photoshoot. You can see the final results on our website www.cornellfarms.ca. You can also see videos of the day, calving season and one of our cooking classes at Elko, on the Cornell Farms you Tube Channel.

We head to Scotland in June for the World

Angus Congress. Follow us on Facebook to see our adventures there.

Our first barn concert of the season will be Keith and Renee July 13th. All upcoming market dates are on the website
