UNION DUKE

Monday, August 24, 2015
7:30 p.m.

Union Duke is back by popular demand to celebrate the centennial of the Cornell Barn.

Like a musical locomotive hurtling 'round the bend, Union Duke is a Toronto folk quintet that's taking the world by storm - one captivating performance at a time. Bridging soulful indie rock with bluegrass and country, these city-slickin' whipper-snappers unleash soaring vocal harmonies over heel-stomping beats, in a growing collection of irresistible songs that set hearts and dancefloors ablaze.

According to the CBC they are "five guys and a half-ton truckload of foot-stomping folk rock."
